

LINFIELD UNIVERSITY FINANCIAL TRANSPARENCY DOCUMENT FOR FRATERNITIES

Chapter dues: These monies fund member activities including programming, recruitment, chapter supplies and chapter operations.

Composite: An annual photograph is taken of each chapter's membership. This expense can be included in chapter dues or billed separately.

New member fee: Fee paid to establish membership in the organization.

IFC dues: These funds are used to support Interfraternity Council (IFC) operations. Examples of items that may be included in the IFC budget are attending conferences, office operations, marketing and electronic media.

Purchase fund: This fund is set up to pay for things not included in chapter dues. It may be used to purchase t-shirts or other fraternity swag or attend optional social functions.

Social fees: Social functions not included in chapter dues are billed out individually based upon the cost of event(s).

Parlor fee: All members have access to chapter property, and thus the property is subject to wear and tear. This fee is used for maintenance of common property areas.
