

A Linfield College Bachelor's Degree is comprised of three parts: general education requirements (including the Linfield Curriculum), major and minor coursework, and electives. The table below identifies the LBCC courses that meet Linfield Curriculum requirements.

- Students may transfer up to 72 semester credits (108 quarter credits) from regionally accredited two-year institutions. To be transferable, coursework must be of college level, similar to courses in the Linfield Catalog, and be completed with a grade of "C" or higher.
- Quarter credits transfer at two-thirds credit, i.e. 3 quarter credits equals 2 semester credits.

Transfer Credit and the Linfield Curriculum

- A minimum of 3 semester credits or 5 quarter credits is required to complete the INQS requirement.
- Students entering Linfield with fewer than 30 transferable semester credits must complete INQS at Linfield.
- Students who enter Linfield having earned an associate degree designed for transfer (e.g., Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer degree (AAOT), Associate of Science Oregon Transfer degree in Business (ASOT-B), Washington Associates of Arts-Direct Transfer Agreement (AA-DTA) or who have received a certificate of completion for the California Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC)) will be required to take at most two lower-division Linfield Curriculum courses from two of the following four categories: Ultimate Questions (UQ), Vital Past (VP), Global Pluralisms (GP) and U.S. Pluralisms (US). In addition, students with an earned associate degree for transfer must take the upper-division Mode of Inquiry and the writing-intensive course(s) within the major. Students entering Linfield with an earned associate degree (for transfer) will be considered to have met the INQS requirement.
- No more than two courses from any one department may be counted towards the Modes of Inquiry and Diversity Studies components of the Linfield Curriculum. For the purposes of the Linfield Curriculum, Sociology and Anthropology are considered to be the same department.
- A minimum of 3 semester credits or 4 quarter credits is required to complete each Mode of Inquiry and Diversity Studies requirement.
- No Mode of Inquiry or Diversity Studies course will be considered complete for graduation purposes without the submission of an Exemplar.
- The Major Writing-Intensive (MWI) Course is typically completed at junior or senior level.
- A minimum of 125 semester hours is required for graduation from Linfield. Thirty semester hours must be completed at Linfield, including 20 of the last 30. In addition, 15 credits in the major (and 10 credits in a minor, if applicable) must be completed at Linfield.
- A minimum cumulative Linfield GPA of 2.0 is required for graduation; students must also earn a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 in courses required for the declared major(s) and minor(s) unless otherwise specified by individual departments.
